Classic Party Rentals and Chameleon Chair® Enter New Agreement

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (July 31, 2009) – Classic Party Rentals, the leading event rental company in the United States, and Chameleon Chairs LLC, dba Chameleon Chair® Collection, today announced they have expanded their business relationship which began in 2007.

Under the new partnership, Classic will assume management and operations of Chameleon's rental business throughout the United States, including Southern California and Las Vegas. Chameleon will continue to operate as an independent company – with its primary focus on design, manufacture and sale of its proprietary line of products – but will cease direct rental activities. Chameleon will continue to introduce new designs and products to the special events industry and other markets to build the revenues of both companies. Per the agreement, Classic Party Rentals will retain exclusive rights to rent Chameleon Chair products in each of its markets.

“Our expanded relationship with Chameleon Chair® is an important step that further incorporates Chameleon Chair® products into our client offerings,” said John Campanelli, President and CEO of Classic Party Rentals. “We are particularly excited about this for the Los Angeles and Las Vegas markets.”

Jerry Smolar, President and CEO of Chameleon added, “This joint venture allows Chameleon Chair® to focus on its business as a designer and manufacturer of its products, and it provides a greater opportunity for clients to ‘one-stop-shop’ for event rentals when selecting Chameleon chairs. Chameleon’s products, coupled with Classic’s established sales, service and transportation infrastructure, present a powerful combination in meeting our clients’ needs.”

About Chameleon Chairs

Chameleon Chairs, LLC was formed in January 2005, and concurrently acquired an existing inventory and patent pending for the Chameleon Chair system. The opportunity to provide over 1,500 chairs for the 2005 Academy Awards Governors Ball was the Company’s initial foray into the chair rental business. The Company does business as the “Chameleon Chair Collection” and manufactures its propriety products. Presently, the Company offers an expansive line of chairs and barstools that can be viewed on their website at www.chameleonchair.com.

The Chameleon Chair is a remarkably versatile stacking chair that is ergonomically engineered for comfort and style. The Chameleon Chair Collection includes metallic and covered back chairs and barstools as well as seat cushions in a variety of colors, fabrics and patterns. The chairs are delivered in a custom storage and transportation dolly that efficiently holds 36 chairs.

Chameleon has filed for patents covering its new products and rental methods, including its transportation system. The company has also received federal trademark registration for the name “Chameleon Chair”.
